

Opgave 3

A 3D perspective diagram of a roof truss system. It shows several parallel yellow rafters sloping downwards from left to right. A network of brown wooden beams is overlaid on these rafters, forming a series of interconnected triangles and rectangles. This structure represents the internal framework that supports the roof's weight and distributes loads.

Udfør model af plankekel og skifte i mål 1:2,5